The department faculty had a very active year. In addition teaching their courses and giving presentations within the UC community, they presented workshops and papers at many international, regional and state conferences:

Angel Añorga

“Transforming the Language Lab into a Collaborative Learning Center: A Plan of Renovation” Computer Assisted Language Instruction Consortium (CALICO) with International Association of Language Learning and Technology (IALLT) Annual Conference held at Ohio University, Athens, OH. May 2014.

“Implementing the Oral Interview Beyond the Classroom.” Ohio Foreign Language Association (OFLA) Annual Conference. Columbus, OH. April 2014. With B. Hunter.

Jody Ballah

Sheri Barksdale

Brian Hunter
“Using Screencasts to Provide Feedback” with Angel Añorga at the Ohio Foreign Language Association (OFLA) Annual Conference in Columbus, Ohio. (April 2014).
“Implementing the Oral Interview Beyond the Classroom” with Angel Añorga at the Ohio Foreign Language Association (OFLA) Annual Conference in Columbus, Ohio. (April 2014).

María Inés Ortiz

Debbie Page
“How to Use TedEd to create lessons for a flipped classroom,” a workshop presented at the Ohio American Association of Teachers of German (Columbus, OH) November 2013.
“Flip Your German Class,” an hour-long presentation at the Ohio Foreign Language Association (Columbus, OH) April 2014.

Teresa Roig-Torres
Angie Woods

“Mind the gap: Practical strategies to address what students need to know before studying abroad,” co-presented with Sue Sipple, Eric Anderson, and Mark Otten. Association of University Regional Campuses of Ohio, Clermont, OH, April 5, 2014.

“The advantages of investing time and effort into implementing CE in a course,” a panel presentation titled Community Engagement SIG Session: Establishing and developing community engagement in diverse settings. Co-presented with Kathleen Tacelosky, Sarah Degner Riveros, and Diana M. Rodríguez-Lozano at the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese 95th Annual Conference, San Antonio, Texas, July 8, 2013.